

MONTHLY SCHOOL BULLETIN – DECEMBER 2022

Regional School Liaison Officer for North Wales

“There are many exciting opportunities for schools and Service children to get involved in North Wales this year, including accessing funding to run school projects, Month of the Military Child celebrations in April, Forces Fitness sessions and activity days and staff training opportunities to increase understanding of Service children’s experiences and look at becoming Armed Forces Friendly schools. Please get in touch if you would like more information about how the Welsh Government funding is being used to support Service children in your area and how you can get involved with the activities.” Cara, CaraLloyd-Roberts@ynysmon.llyw.cymru

Participation Lead Officer

“It’s been a busy month! We’ve been lucky enough to visit a few of our schools and their Little Troopers clubs. Thank you to New Inn Primary School and Mount Street Infants School; we loved painting poppies, attending your Remembrance service, and taking part in a Little Troopers well-being session with you. We thoroughly enjoyed Neath Port Talbot Council’s Forces Festival, hosted by Ysgol Cwm Brombil. It was a great success and was wonderful to see so many amazing young people being supported by their schools and the wider community. We were also able to attend the Children in Wales, Young Wales Festival 2022 and learn more about Children’s Rights, listening to children and hearing their voice. With this in mind, we will continue to support schools to ensure that Service children/young people feel valued and heard.” Jo, Joanna.wolfe@wlga.gov.uk
